“Building Leadership Teams that are Second to None”

17,000 new customers every month, and year-to-year growth that continually exceeds industry growth, Citrix Online is a shining star and a technology powerhouse.

“Exceptional leadership has been and will continue to be paramount to our success,” says Manbach, Vice President of Global Sales for Citrix Online. Mansbach joined Citrix Online in 2004, and been a part of the team that has led its more than 400% growth.

“With the guidance and leadership coaching from Karen Colligan, Principal of PeopleThink™, our leadership teams are second to none in the business.

Every single member of our team makes a difference. Every single member of our team has an impact. Every single member of our team is critical to our success.

“Karen is more than just our leadership coach; she is a core member of our team.

Working side-by-side with each of us and our teams for more than four years, Karen has helped us build a dynamic leadership framework that supports our global team and dynamic growth. Karen continually challenges each of us to step up, holds us accountable to our individual commitments, to one another, and to the goals of the company.

“Thanks to the PeopleThink™ signature programs, LeadershipNow™ and Building BenchStrength™, we’ve put together a team that continues to grow and deliver success, and has the bench strength to sustain us going forward.

Moving forward with LeadershipNow™.

“Based on the consistently positive feedback and visible traction resulting from Karen’s programs, we are excited about moving forward into the next phase of LeadershipNow.

“Effective leadership is the foundation of our organization, and Karen will continue to guide us, as individuals and as a team, toward the successful and purposeful achievement of our growth goals.

Invest in your team, invest in your future!

“Whether working one-on-one with individual leaders, facilitating a team session, or strategizing with executives, Karen brings her expertise, her fortitude and her incredible energy to every working session. The value that she and the PeopleThink programs have brought to Citrix Online is evident every day as we continue to grow, build our leadership team and build our successful business.”
